1. Wel - come, wel-come, Sab - bath morn-ing; Now we rest from ev-'ry care.
 2. Hark! the Sab-bath bells are ring - ing; Hear the ech - oes all a-round.
 3. Here we bow in meek de - vo - tion; Here we sing God's ho - ly praise.
 4. Here we meet with friends and neigh-bors; Par - ents too are in the throng.

Wel - come, wel-come is thy dawn-ing, Ho - ly Sab-bath, day of prayer.
 List! the mer - ry chil-dren sing - ing! What a pleas-ing, joy - ful sound!
 Here our hearts, with fond e - mo - tion, Seek to learn his ho - ly ways.
 We are ear - nest in our la - bors. To God's king-dom we be - long.

Lov - ing teach-ers kind - ly greet us As we meet in Sun-day School,
 Ev - 'ry ten - der note en - treats us, Bids us come, no lon - ger stay.
 From the books of rev - e - la - tion We are taught while yet in youth.
 Tri - als make our faith grow stron-ger; Truth is no - bler than a crown.

Where they la - bor hard to teach us By the Sav-ior's gold-en rule.
 On our way the mu - sic greets us; Has - ten, has - ten, come a - way.
 Words of heav'n-ly in - spi - ra - tion Guide us in the path of truth.
 We will brave the tem - pest lon-ger Tho the world up - on us frown.

Wel - come, wel - come, Sab - bath morn - ing; Now we rest from ev - 'ry care.

Wel - come, wel-come is thy dawn-ing, Ho - ly Sab - bath, day of prayer.
